STEPHENS' GOOD ADVICE

Hon. E. W. Stephens in a talk to the old settlers, deplored the change in parental authority in the present day from years ago. In the old days parental authority was absolute and so long as a member of the family remained at home the commands of the head of the family was law and not one dare dispute it. It is not so universally true nowadays, for young America begins to assert its independence of all authority many years before the age limit. Mr. Stephens cited a great mistake in our latter day Americanism and it is a great pity that the early day methods are not now the rule.—Moberly Democrat.

Mr. Stephens is eminently correct in the foregoing advice, as he is in everything else. Fathers and mothers who read this, recall for a moment your own childhood. Were you allowed to go to school when you pleased and loaf when you liked? Did you stay out at night with "de gang" until it suited your pleasure to go home? How much money would it have taken to bribe you to say "I won't" in reply to a parental command? The writer would as soon have thought of jumping off the Hannibal bridge, and so would you if you were properly brought up. Many boys are absolutely ruined by a lax system of parental discipline. Does your boy belong to this class?—Kansas City Post.

The Road to Success

Has many obstructions, but none so desperate as poor health. Success today demands health, but Electric Bitters is the greatest health builder the world has ever known. It compels perfect action of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, purifies and enriches the blood, and tones and invigorates the whole system. Vigorous body and keen brain follow their use. You can't afford to slight Electric Bitters if weak, run-down or sickly. Only 50c. Guaranteed by A. H. Cox and Co.

Missouri raised $5,000,000 worth of fruit this year and the amount would have reached $20,000,000 had not frost interfered in the early part of the season. This statement more than ever indicates that the people of the state could live comfortably the year round, if the domain was enclosed with a fence.—Joplin Times.

It would take ten companies to fill all the dates offered Fred Raymond for his Missouri Girl show this season. Monett is fortunate in securing this excellent attraction and we hope the people will show their appreciation of his effort by filling the theater on Friday night.

MISSOURI STATE FAIR AT SEDALIA OCTOBER 2-8

The Missouri State Fair for 1909 is to be by far the best yet held. There will be more speed events for larger purses, more machinery, more horses, cattle, swine, more agricultural and horticultural exhibits, a better dairy display and, in all a bigger Fair than ever before.

The State Fair is better advertised, the railroads have been more liberal in the way of rates and special trains and the special attractions are the best. Some of the best performers in the country have been engaged. Mulhall's Roping and Riding Exhibitions in front of the grand stand every day. Lucile Mulhall, whom ex-President Roosevelt says is the best horsewoman in America, will give exhibitions and also rope and tie wild steers in front of the grand stand.

Opening Day, Saturday.
Dan Patch Day, Monday.
Sedalia Day, Tuesday.
Governor's Day, Wednesday.
Missouri Day, Thursday.
Automobile Day, Friday.

Go With a Rush

The demand for that wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney cure, Dr. King's New Life Pills—is astounding. A. H. Cox & Co. say they never saw the like. Its because they never fail to cure Sour Stomach, Constipation, Indigestion, Biliousness, Jaundice, Sick Headache, Chills and Malaria. Only 25c.

SEATTLE ENTERTAINS ODD FELLOWS SOVEREIGN LODGE

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 20.—The sovereign grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the United States and Canada, after being welcomed at a public meeting today, began its sessions.

W. L. Kuykendall of Wyoming was chosen grandsire, and John B. Cokrum of Indianapolis was elected deputy grandsire. Other candidates for the office of grandsire were C. A. Keller of Dallas and J. S. Hoagland of Nebraska.

Best Treatment for a Burn

If for no other reason, Chamberlain's Salve should be kept in every household on account of its great value in the treatment of burns. It allays the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a severe one, heals the parts without leaving a scar. This salve is also unequalled for chapped hands, sore nipples and diseases of the skin. Price 25 cents. For sale by all dealers.

As a laugh producer The Missouri Girl has no equal. It is not that low vulgar comedy that is sometimes seen in stage performances, but clean, refined comedy that is really funny, without being vulgar.

A Sprained Ankle

As usually treated a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle faithfully, a cure may, in most cases, be effected in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation, try it for a sprain or a bruise, or when laid up with chronic or muscular rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. For sale by all druggists.

The case of H. H. Elliott vs G. W. Qualls, suit on note, occupied the time in Jewett's Justice Court Tuesday. The jury, consisting of Wm. McCormick, L. C. Estes, A. H. Cox, Ed. Johnson, Geo. Wilson and B. S. Binney, found for the defendant, J. H. Bloss, of Aurora, and D. S. Mayhew appeared for the plaintiff and F. P. Sizer for the defendant.

Why Druggists Recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

Mr. Frank C. Hanrahan, a prominent druggist of Portsmouth, Va., says: "For the past six years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle some others for the same purposes that pay me a larger profit, but this remedy is so sure to effect a cure, and my customer so certain to appreciate my recommending it to him, that I give it the preference." For sale by all druggists.

EDITOR TIMES:

I regret very much indeed to trouble you with publishing the accompanying ode composed by my son, J. E. Harvey to be read 17th inst. on the occasion of observance of my natal day.

The Star kindly published a part of the ode, but through the carelessness of compositor or being "short" on type, a portion was omitted.

So far as I know, Jack is the only poet that has appeared in the Harvey family. The Harvey's include many illustrious names, among them being "Coin" Harvey and Sir William Harvey who discovered the circulation of the blood. The family dates so far back that the time of William the Conqueror appears as but a few years in comparison.

Below you will find Jack's verse in full. Very truly,
T. L. HARVEY.

"On the 17th of September, Ever since I can remember, Our father has in some way Celebrated his birthday. So now on this occasion Without least persuasion, We children have met Which we'll never regret, In token of esteem (And it's no dream) We wish to bestow Something he can show and keep As long as he can leap Over the lands of Missouri, It's not for its intrinsic value We wish to present, But as something words fail to express.

It's a chain for his watch Which I think is up to the notch; Should ever the links break, To Perry Short he can take, Who, with greatest delight, Will fix it all right. From his children, Jack and Ella, Dot and Hal, Joe and Nell.
